

Alaska Native Institute awards scholarships to village students

The Alaska Native Institute (ANI) at Alaska Pacific University has announced the recipients of the 1993 Alaska Native/American Indian 50% tuition Waiver Scholarship. They are as follows: Seniors, Helen Chimegalrea-Smith from Bethel, majoring in elementary education; Juniors, Teresa Nelson from Anchorage, majoring in Human Resource Management; Karen McClellan from Kotzebue, majoring in accounting; Susan Woods from Kotzebue, majoring in elementary education; Sophomores, Oteka Jenkins from Oklahoma, majoring in accounting/finance; Geraldine Okitkin from Kotlik, majoring in Psychology; Freshman, Nancy Lind from Karluk, majoring in pre-law; Angela Peters from Kipnuk, majoring in accounting/business management; Michelle Meehan from Anchorage, majoring in elementary education.

In addition, Sean Penetac from Nome, majoring in pre-medicine, and Maver Hoffman from Aniak, majoring in elementary education, received 50% tuition waivers as the academically outstanding graduates of the Alaska Native Institute Summer Enrichment Program. Each scholarship will provide $3,600 toward the tuition of each student awarded.