

AN ESKIMO FAMILY--We don't know who this attractive family is but we think the folks are just getting ready to go to church on Christmas Day. It could well be because they are dressed in their best parkas, a custom followed in villages in Alaska.