

Two Filipino Nurses Assist Bethel Staff

Due to the lack of professional nurses in Bethel, Alaska, two Filipino nurses Miss Francisca Wong and Florence Omengan assigned to the PHS Indian Hospital, Blecourt, North Dakota volunteered their services to assist the nursing staff at the PHS Hospital in Bethel for two months, and are presently on duty there.

Misses Wong and Omengan received their nurses training at St. Luke's Hospital in Manila, Philippine Islands.