

Meal at school kicks off village holiday season

Mountain Village parent Theresa Sheppard enjoyed a meal with her children in the elementary school recently.

Mountain Village School — kindergarten through 12th grade — started the holiday season by inviting all parents to share a meal with their children.

Principal Patricia Hutcherson said she encourages all parents to get involved with their children's education.

