

The Mountain Village first and second grade class is getting in the holiday spirit. They are practicing for the Mountain Village annual Christmas school program. The program will be held Dec. 20, and all village members are invited.