A SUBSIDIARY OF ARCTIC SLOPE REGIONAL CORPORATION

STATE OF ALASKA OLDER ALASKANS COMMISSION

Request for Grant Applications from Northwest and Southwest Alaska

The Older Alaskans Commission has funding available for a portion of CY 1983 under Title V, Senior Community Service Employment Program, of the Older Americans Act, as amended.

Funds will be awarded for the employment of low-income seniors age 55 and up solely in the Northwest and Southwest areas defined by the boundaries of the following Native corporations: NANA Regional, Arctic Slope Regional, Bristol Bay Native, Bering Straits Native, Calista and Aleut. This area includes census areas 01, 02, 03, 07, 08, 09, 10, and 11.

Eligible applicants include non-profit organizations, local units or agencies of government, and Alaskan or Indian entities not organized for profit. No administrative costs are allowed and no match is required.

Grant applications must be postmarked by March 25, 1983.

To apply for funds, request a grant application from: Senior Employment Unit, Older Alaskans Commission, Department of Administration, Pouch C, M.S. 0209, Juneau, Alaska 99811 or telephone 465-3250.

AIA Alaska's Heavy-Weight Champion

Alaska International Air is Alaska's largest all-cargo carrier, providing regularly scheduled service between Anchorage, Fairbanks, Prudhoe Bay, Barrow, Bethel, Kotzebue, Nome, Dillingham, McGrath, Pt. Hope, Galena, Aniak, St. Mary's, and Unalakleet. Our "Hercs" can transport anything from a one pound priority package to a 50,000 pound D7 Cat. AIA also charts worldwide — taking a full payload into airstrips as short as 4,000 feet in length. So if you have freight to move, call the airline that does nothing else.
