
Humphrey Nominee For Pres.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was picked for the Democratic nominee for President of the United States in the general election in November by the Democratic National Convention in Chicago last Wednesday night.

The Vice President gained his vote for nomination on landslide proportions over his closest opponent Senator Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

The convention vote progressed amid the throngs of

(Continued on page 6)

Humphrey

(Continued from page 1)

Vietnam war protesters who battled with police and National Guardsmen 25 floors below the Vice President's suite in a Chicago hotel.

Humphrey will pit his strength against the Republican nominee, Richard Nixon, for President of the United States on November 5 general election.