

Democrats Elect Officials

Don McPhee of Fairbanks has been elected to chairman of the Central District Democrats at the three-day Fairbanks convention that ended 2 weeks ago. McPhee succeeds Claude Douglas and defeated Nancy LeFevre for the post. Other officers elected were Gina Brown, vice chairman; Pat Clark, secretary; and Edwina Rodrigues, treasurer. Elected to the State Central Committee to represent the Central District were Mary Nordale, vice chairman; Dale Woody, committeeman; and Kitty Dworkin, committee woman. Delegates to the Interim Conference to be held in December are Betty Fahrenkamp, Niilo Koponen. Juanita Metoyer is the alternate. About 90 delegates were chosen to attend the state-wide Democratic Convention in May at Nome.
