

Eklutna directors elected

The 20th annual meeting of Eklutna, Inc. was held on September 25 in Eagle River, Alaska. Elected to the five member board of directors were: Michael E. Curry, president; Lee Stephan, vice president; Dorothy Cook, secretary-treasurer. Dan Alex and Bobby Alex serve as board members.

Eklutna, Inc. is a Native Village Corporation and is the largest private landowner within the Municipality of Anchorage. The corporation currently is working to develop a 560 parcel known as the Powder Reserve in Eagle River.

Curry has served as president since February of this year and previously served as vice president.