

Sharing Responsibility: We take it seriously.

The Anchorage Hilton Hotel and Bristol Bay Native Corporation welcomes the Alaska Natives to the 1993 AFN Convention. As a Native owned company, the Anchorage Hilton Hotel takes its "Shared Responsibility" seriously and prides itself in taking good care of Anchorage's most valuable asset, its visitors.

Located in the heart of downtown, the Anchorage Hilton is within easy walking distance of the Egan Convention Center, the Performing Arts Center, the Coastal Trail, and shopping.

The Anchorage Hilton would like to be your host during the AFN Convention. Call us for reservations at 265-7152 and be sure to ask for the reduced rate of $78 for AFN travelers.

Alaska Urban & Community Forest Council

The Division of Forestry is seeking applicants for this 15-member statewide advisory council, which promotes planting and caring for trees and forests in communities throughout the state. Members are needed to reflect the professional, geographic, cultural, ethnic, economic and community diversity of Alaska.

Seats are open for a municipal planner, someone employed in the horticulture industry, and someone in private business or industry, and two members-at-large. Applicants must be able to attend all-day meetings four times each year, usually in Anchorage, and do committee work. There is no compensation except travel expenses.

Applications must be received by 4:30 p.m. on Mon., Nov. 1 at the address below. For information and an application, please contact your local Division of Forestry office or call 762-2289.
