

Leah Weyapuk, a graduate of Wales High School and currently a sophomore at Sheldon Jackson College, serves as a park ranger at the Sitka National Historical Park. Although the Inupiat woman speaks to visitors about Tlingit culture and early Russian Alaska history, she is also working on a slide show for the Park Visitor Center about life above the Arctic Circle.

Photo by Lyn Kidder