

STATE CHAIRMAN PICKED FOR UN DAY

Mrs. Joe (Karla) Josephson of Anchorage was named today by Governor William A. Egan as State Chairman for United Nations Day in Alaska.

Mrs. Josephson, whose husband is a member of the Alaska State House of Representatives, has been an active member of the League of Women Voters.

As State U.N. Day Chairman, Mrs. Josephson will coordinate State and local U.N. Day committee activities with the United States committee for the U.N. Day observances to be held October 24, the 20th anniversary of the coming into force of the United Nations Charter.
