

Solomon Native Corp. declares dividend of $5

The Board of Directors of Solomon Native Corp. declared a cash dividend distribution recently of $5 per share to be paid from retained earnings, according to the corporation.

This is the 10th consecutive year that the corporation has paid a dividend to its shareholders. The dividend was to be paid last week. Most shareholders own 100 shares of stock and will receive a check for $500 from the corporation.

The board's action came after the annual meeting at the Solomon Roadhouse Sept. 15.

Solomon Native Corp. is the smallest village corporation in the Bering Straits Region with 33 shareholders. Twenty-eight were represented at the meeting either in person or by proxy.

Elected to the board were RoseAnn Timbers, Joseph Curran, Robert Curran, Roy Kenick and Robert Tootkaylok. Officers elected include RoseAnn Timbers, president; Joseph Curran, vice president; Robert Curran, treasurer; Roy Kenick, secretary; and Robert Tootkaylok, sergeant at arms.