

North Slope Borough voters elect Kaleak for mayor

Jeslie Kaleak was elected mayor of the North Slope Borough last week, according to unofficial election results.

Kaleak received 757 votes in last week's election.

Others in the race and their vote totals included Edward Itta, 687; Ben

Nageak, 237, and Rex Okakok, 52.

Write-in candidate Luki Dobson received 16 votes.

A spokeswoman for the North Slope Borough Clerk's office said absentee ballots had not yet been counted. She said the election would be officially certified this week.
