

Dalton

for
Lt. Governor

Kathleen (Mike) Dalton, right, with Ann Stevens at a Barrow whaling camp in 1973.

"Mike Dalton knows first-hand about arctic Eskimo bowhead whaling and other Native subsistence needs. Mike Dalton has been a long-time friend of Alaska Native people. Mike will make an excellent Lieutenant Governor for Alaska Natives and all Alaskans."

—Laura M. Bergt    Chairman    Alaska Natives for Mike Dalton

These are a few examples of Mike Dalton's interest and involvement in Alaska Native and bush issues:

- ✓ lived at Barrow, 1950 to 1953, and 1955 to 1957
- ✓ honorary member, Fairbanks Native Association since 1964
- ✓ Tanana Chiefs: attended Chiefs' meetings beginning in 1962
- ✓ AFN: Mike has been an interested observer over many years of AFN
- ✓ Tundra Times: early contributor of pictures and stories
- ✓ Mike has traveled extensively in the villages, from Barrow south to Angoon, Kaktovik to Attu, Nome to Chalkyitsik.
- ✓ long-time support of World Eskimo-Indian Olympics

Mike Dalton's experience is extensive and varied:

- ✓ reporter, writer, columnist, photographer for the Fairbanks News-Miner for ten years
- ✓ five-year member of the Fairbanks North Star Borough Assembly
- ✓ Field Representative for Senator Ted Stevens for 6 and one-half years
- ✓ wife, mother of two children (George 23, Libby 21), homemaker

"Mike Dalton is well-qualified, highly capable, a multi-talented individual — the kind of person Alaska needs and deserves for Lieutenant Governor."

—Laura Bergt
