

Birth Defects Implicated in Tots' Deaths

The March of Dimes' Professional Education Program is a primary source of information on clinical and research developments in birth defects for medical and nursing schools, physicians and members of the health professions.

Birth defects are implicated in fully half the deaths of pre-school children in this country, the March of Dimes estimates.