

Eyak holds annual meet

The Eyak village corporation, following its annual meeting in Cordova in early October, dedicated a bronze monument to the Eyak and Aleut peoples of the region. The Eyak Indians, once a widespread Alaska Native group occupying the northern coast of the Gulf of Alaska from the Cordova area to Yakutat, is now almost extinct. Only a few