

Heartbroken Dogsled Racer

(From Tuntutuliak News)

RAY DANIEL—Last Sunday we had a race. I was first to go. I was scared when I went first. My dog wanted to go home. I was the veriest mad in the whole wide six inch world. I was heartbroken when my friends were zooming, whizzing past me.

My heart Valentine fell to the ground.

Last Monday I went with Mary Miller when they had a race. When we got to the Upper Village I laughed at Mary when I fell on the water. It was fun when I fell. I laughed.
