

Study charts tourism

A new study by the Alaska Division of Tourism shows that business travelers and the friends and relatives of Alaska residents make up the lion's share of fall, winter and spring visitors to Alaska.

Business related travelers comprise 52 percent of fall, winter and spring visitors, compared with 18 percent in the summer.