

Carr Pushes Voter Registration

More than 350 volunteer supporters of Larry Carr knocked on 50,000 doors throughout Alaska last Thursday night distributing pre-registration forms to help Alaskans to become eligible to vote.

The Walk for Carr was carried out in five Alaska cities—Anchorage, Fairbanks, Juneau, Sitka and Ketchikan.

Walkers distributed packets that included forms of pre-registration.

Larry Carr, Democratic candidate for governor, has been pressing for stepped up pre-registration throughout Alaska.

He has offered a five point program to help register tens of thousands of Alaskans who otherwise will be ineligible to vote in the primary election August 25.
