

AFN Readies For Convention

The Alaska Federation of Natives has begun preparations of the annual AFN convention. The Convention will take place at Carpenters Hall in Anchorage, Alaska, October 15 through 17, 1970.

All delegates are requested to make reservations for housing in Anchorage well in advance. This promises to be a busy convention year for the City of Anchorage.

The NCAI Convention will begin October 19 and reservations have been made well in advance, here, also.
