

Seward Skill Center Has Its First Marriage

(Special to the Tundra Times)

The Alaska Skill Center's first wedding took place in Seward last month between Sharon Posey of Anchorage, the first girl clerical trainee, and Joseph Takak of Egegik, the first cook trainee at the center.

The young couple were married by District Magistrate Genevieve Schafermeyer. Ava Harris was the maid of honor, and the best man was John Elibosky. Both are fellow trainees of the newlyweds.

A reception followed at the American Legion Club. Skill Center staff and trainees attended. The decorated cake was a gift from Joyce LaFond, instructor in the food service training division.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Takak left for Egegik where Mr. Takak will engage in fishing before returning to the Skill Center in the fall for advanced training.

SKILL CENTER WEDDING—Romance blossomed at the Skill Center in Seward last month when two trainees, Miss Sharon Posey, clerical trainee, and Joseph Takak, cook trainee, were married. Sharon is from Anchorage and Joseph is from Egegik.

—DAVE THOMPSON Photograph