

ALASKA SHOW — Larry Beck's show for the tourist is being aired from the city of Anchorage this summer. Appearing with Larry is Miss Alaska, Cindy Suryan of Kodiak.

LARRY BECK'S ALASKA SHOW

Larry Beck's Alaska Show will once again be viewed by tourists to the Great Land this summer.

give an insight into the life and the feelings of the north country.

Larry, who presented his Robert Service recitations and original Alaskan songs, poems and slides to the tourists at Fairbanks' Alaskaland for five years, will be appearing six nights a week from June 1 through August 31 at Hotel Captain Cook.

An Alaskan dinner buffet will be served nightly in the Aft Deck of the hotel along with the show.

Appearing with Larry will be Miss Alaska, Cindy Suryan of Kodiak. Cindy will be working with the show all summer prior to her appearance in Atlantic City in September in the Miss American Pageant.

As Alaska's Ambassador of Good Will, Larry has performed in most of the "Lower 48" both on television and in over 2000 live performances.

"We try to present some of the Robert Service Favorites," states Beck, "but we also present some of his lesser known poems along with my own poems of Alaska."

The whole show is designed to
