What Saith the Scriptures?

God had to drive man out of His presence because of sin. Now that the death of His Son has fully satisfied the righteous claims of His justice and holiness, He opens the way to the heavenly paradise to whosoever will repent and believe that his own sins are put away by the atoning death of Jesus Christ.

There are then two invitations addressed to all men; one from the Savior God who wants to have companions in the eternal glory, and the other from Satan who wants to have others with him in the eternal fire prepared for him and his demons.

Dear reader, with whom do you desire to spend eternity—with the Lord Jesus or with Satan? Today you have to decide: "Behold now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation." 2 Cor. 6:2. "Repent and believe the Gospel." Mark 1:15. "For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved." John 3:17. "He that believeth on Him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the only begotten Son of God." John 3:18.
