

Duties and Responsibilities:

As the leader of the NSHEC, the Director must possess a high degree of professional competence, coupled with authentic sensitivity to the shifting needs and demands of a non-traditional educational institution. The Director needs to exhibit considerable cross-disciplinary skill and expertise in order to refine and foster an organization that operates with academic integrity and cultural respect. The Director is responsible for:

1. The overall functioning of the NSHEC, by demonstrating leadership and expertise in the academic, administrative, and fiscal spheres;
2. Maintaining a culturally-sensitive climate supportive of teaching, learning, student development, scholarship, research, and service;
3. Providing open and effective channels of communication among the departments and faculty within the NSHEC, as well as with the institutions, organizations, and individuals that comprise its clientele;
4. Serves as the major liaison with the University of Alaska-Fairbanks;
5. The preparation, implementation, and evaluation of the Center's budget and fiscal policies;
6. Recruitment, appointment, evaluation, promotion, and termination of all NSHEC personnel;
7. Articulating the policies, needs, and accomplishments of the NSHEC to the larger university structures, as well as the internal/external publics; and
8. Teaching at least one course per semester within his/her field of specialization.

Qualifications:

1. An earned doctorate in an appropriate field of study;
2. Demonstrated commitment to and understanding of higher education within a non-traditional education setting;
3. Demonstrated commitment to local community control and direction of educational programming within non-traditional settings;
4. Extensive knowledge of educational theories, trends, ideas, and resources, especially as they apply to non-traditional Native American, rural, and/or field-based programs;
5. Solid understanding of and demonstrated commitment of the maintenance of Native American values, traditions, and institutions;
6. Commitment to and understanding of the centrality of teaching and scholarship within a community context;
7. Commitment to student growth and development and the demonstrated ability to recognize special student needs;
8. Extensive knowledge of fund-raising, grant-writing, and educational development activities;
9. Excellent communication skills in both formal and informal settings;
10. Demonstrated competence in management of fiscal affairs;
11. Well-developed interpersonal skills and acute sensitivities required to relate to diverse publics;
12. Personal style characterized by integrity, flexibility, and honesty;
13. Extensive college teaching experience;
14. Extensive experience in distance delivery of courses and programs.

Preferred Qualifications

1. Bilingual (English/Inupiaq).
2. Extensive knowledge of the geographic, climatic, and political conditions of the North Slope of Alaska, or other Arctic areas.
3. Experience in Native American, multi-cultural, or bi-cultural situations.

Salary Range: commensurate with experience.

Interested Candidates should submit:

1. A personal letter indicating interest in the position outlining experience and special competencies for the position;
2. A current resume;
3. Five professional references sent directly to the Search Committee; and
4. University placement/credential files.

Application materials should be sent to:

Chairperson, Director Search Committee
North Slope Higher Education Center
P.O. Box 89
Barrow, Alaska 99723

Deadline for receipt of applications: January 15. The successful candidates should expect to assume the position no later than May 15.

The North Slope Higher Education Center is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer, and educational institution. Your application for employment with the NSHEC may be subject to Public Disclosure, if you are selected as a finalist.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

This is the fourth partial listing of persons whose applications for Native allotments may be deemed timely filed pursuant to a settlement agreement in Fanny Barr v. United States, A76-160 Civil (USDC Alaska) signed August 2, 1982. These applications may qualify for legislative approval under Section 905 of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act unless a protest is filed as provided for in that section.

In accordance with the Court Order of January 10, 1985, any person who has evidence that a potential class member is not eligible for class membership may submit that evidence with the Bureau of Land Management. The requirements for class eligibility are as follows: (1) The applicant gave a Native allotment application to a Bureau of Land Management worker before December 18, 1971, and the application was not delivered to the United States government; (2) The applicant is a full or mixed-blood Native and 21 years of age; (3) The applicant has not already received a Native allotment; (4) The applicant sent a letter to the court before November 22, 1982; and (5) The applicant submitted a consent to adjudication and limited waiver to BLM. Any evidence submitted pursuant to this notice must relate to one or more of the above requirements.
