

Fish Board adjourns

The Alaska Board of Fisheries adjourned Thursday on the motion of board member John Garner of Juneau without acting on proposals before the board.

The board may not meet again until this spring, after Gov. Steve Cowper appoints three new members to the board.