More than 200 friends and band to Fairbanks Wednesday to porters attended a cocktail share in the local tribute to the rty at the Fairbanks Curling Republican standard bearer.

"We sincerely appreciate that Howard has chosen to share his well deserved re-election with us in the Interior in this manner," was the comment of Mrs. Edith Holm, whose husband, John, is one of three Republicans re-elected to the Alaska House of Representatives.

Also commenting upon Congressman Pollock's immediate post-election return to Fairbanks was Bob Bettisworth, local contractor, who observed "Alaska has had, for the past two years, the finest representation in Congress. And we appreciate the fact that Howard does indeed come back to get our views on many items of vital interest to the Interior and to all Alaska."
