a meeting to the independent ASCAP measure might be thrown open to a last-minute power play by Barry. The ASCAP measure was passed by the board and we have tape recordings to prove it."

Perdue cited another example of "pressure" from Barry:

"September 18, 19 and 20, I attended a regional OEO conference in Fresno, Calif. My position as ASCAP President is non-paid and entirely voluntary, but when I travel on this business our expenses are paid."

"While in California, I was contacted and informed that all appropriations to the state office of the OEO had been cut. I was stranded down there without any money."

"Fortunately, we were wise enough to buy a round-trip ticket before we left Fairbanks so I, at least, had a way to get back."
