

He's glad Jeffrey named

Dear Editor,

I wish to express my feelings of relief on the Governor's appointment of Michael Ives Jeffrey to the Superior Court bench in Barrow.

I have known him for about four years and in them years he has helped out the Inupiat Eskimo and my family a great deal.

I just want all the people of my hometown to know how lucky they are at his appointment, and also I want you all to know that in the first place he is not (Michael Jeffrey) making all that much money as an attorney for Alaska Legal Services and secondly if he wanted more money he could have went to work for one of the big corporations which would have gladly paid him double if he asked.

Michael Jeffrey deserves to be appointed and I am sure he will do a good job.

It is about time he got a raise and I personally wish to thank him plus give him the best of luck.

Sincerely,

Riggs A. Peter Jr.
Ketchikan

even though you were responsible for 99.7 percent of the total campaign expenditures.

Let us remind you that your opponent was a political unknown (who was about as inarticulate as you when you first ran for Congress) who only spent 1 cent per vote.

Comparing that with your spending of $1.82 per vote shows that a candidate with some political experience and a modest amount of campaign funds can be elected to your seat. We're looking forward to 1984.

Sincerely,

A.J. and Judy Crondahl

She's angry with Rep. Young

The following was sent to The Honorable Don Young
U.S. House of Representatives

We were appalled by your arrogance and rude behavior in the committee hearing which we heard on public radio news yesterday.

Particularly galling was your pride at having been re-elected with 71 percent of the vote
