

Village students honored

Nine students studying in six rural Alaska communities have earned academic honors for the first semester in the University of Alaska-Fairbanks' XCED program.

The XCED (Cross-Cultural Education Developmental) program allows students to remain in their home communities and earn certain educational degrees. Their course work is a combination of one-to-one or small group studies with a visiting professor and directed self-study.

Receiving a perfect A or 4.0 average were Diana Anderson, Aniak, Carol Charlie, Toksook Bay; Martha Darling, Nulato; Helen Gonion, Nome; Lena Ulroan, Chevak and William Zachares, Kotzebue.

On the Dean's List with a B+ average of 3.5 or higher were Hazel Purinton, Nulato; Sue Unin, Chevak and Camille Zachares, Kotzebue.
