

Centennial Cook Book

Mrs. Carol Jancek, as Centennial Cook Book Chairman, is compiling Alaska cuisine recipes to be made into a book.

"The 1967 Alaska Purchase Centennial Cook Book is now being compiled," Mrs. Jancek said. "We invite everyone in the state who wishes to submit a recipe or two for this cook book to do so at this time.

"The book will contain the usual cook book categories with three additional sections for fish-wild game, Native Alaskan foods, and Sourdough. If you have a comment on the recipes being submitted, or would like to add a short paragraph about your life in Alaska, this would help make the cook book especially interesting to other Alaskans as well as cooks in the South 48, who will be using our cook book.

"If you or your organization are interested in working with this committee, or if you submit recipes, please address your correspondence to Mrs. Carol Jancek, Centennial Cook Book Chairman, Chugiak, Alaska."
