

Bus Kills Tiny Barrow Girl in Mishap on Village Street

By GUY OKAKOK
Barrow Correspondent

A bus ran over one of the child who lives at Browerville, her name is Marie E. Kignak, daughter of Paulie Kignak.

Children were playing buggy round holding each hand by hand. Somehow, this child Marie got loose from her grip while bus was coming.

Driver had no chance to go sideways, hit the child. The driver took her right away to the hospital but this child never came back to normal. She died.

We all with the parents of this child.

Clean-up Contest

Judges annual of clean yards contest took place Sunday 14th of August. Cleanest yard will win $25 for first prize, 2nd prize $15 and 3rd prize $10.

Mr. Paulie Matumenk has the cleanest yard and won $25 1st prize. 2nd prize $15 to Owen Keerek and 3rd prize goes to Samuel Panningonna.

Now our worries is over on this clean up yards, but it will keep on coming every year here in Barrow.

Berge Arrives

Barge of Kotzebue arrives this morning with a heavy load of gasoline, motor oils, and fuels for airplanes.

They are selling gasoline for $27 for 50-gallon drum. Several people here are buying several drums out from her which they could buy them cheaper.

Longshore Hire

North Star arrives. We as parents must urged our kids to go to school because education is what they needed.

Getting Better

Mr. Mike Erickson, a bush pilot, is recovering fast after his accident of plane crash.

Now he is using crutches and will no longer use them anymore in a near future.

Let's Work Together

Folks, we are all Inupiat wherever you are, what races you may be. We all know when villages organized things they really needed. It's only way to voice things, not hiding it.

So we must work together and this only way we could come to a better citizen.
