

A MESSAGE TO VIDE AND HER CHILDREN

No man can know the intensity of our sorrow nor can we be man enough to convey to Vide and her kids our sorrow in losing the most faithful servant, Bob Bartlett. We do not think that we can add venture to seek another man as socially jealous in his fight for the welfare of the aborigenes of the State of Alaska: Aleut, Athabaskan, and most of all the Eskimos.

God bless you, our hearts are with you, Vide and kids. This message is from everyone of us who all love you. Keep on living, Vide. We are yours forever.

—The Eskimo of all Alaska
(Eskimos of Barrow, Alaska)