

Paper Boy Says Times Comes Late At Anaktuvuk

(From NUNAMIUT NEWS)

By STANLEY MORRY
6th Grader
Anaktuvuk Pass, Alaska

My job is selling the Tundra Times. But when the Tundra Times are late most people say they're too late. But they buy them. Because they like to read them.

But when papers are left over I have to tear the top off and send the dollar to the Tundra Times.

But they have a long time to print them and that's why they are quite late.