

APPOINTEES STUDY SALARIES

JUNEAU—The appointment of three prominent Alaskans to a special committee to study salaries in the judicial and executive branches of state government was announced by Gov. Walter J. Hickel's office this week.

The committee members are

Sen. Carl Brady of Anchorage; Robert McFarland of Anchorage, president-emeritus for the Alaska State Federation of Labor; and Fred Eastaugh, a Juneau attorney.

The committee's study will be limited to the salaries of Supreme Court, superior court judges, the Governor, the Secretary of State and members of the cabinet.

The first meeting of the committee will be held in Anchorage on December 20.
