

Comment period for crab paper extended

The comment period for an issues paper describing long-term alternatives for federal management of the Alaska Tanner crab fishery has been extended from Aug. 7 to Sept. 12.

The paper was produced by the North Pacific Fishery Management Council, and comments received will be given to the council for use at their Sept. 24-26 meeting.