

SWORN IN—Mrs. Mae Shroyer of Point Hope is being sworn in as a Deputy Clerk of Court by Judge William H. Sanders of the Superior Court at Nome. Mae is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Seveck and stepdaughter of Chester Seveck.

Mae Shroyer Sworn in as Deputy Clerk of Court by Judge Sanders

Mrs. Mae Shroyer, originally from Point Hope, earlier this month was sworn in by Judge William H. Sanders, Second Judicial District, at Nome as a Deputy Clerk of Court.

In her new position as a Deputy Clerk, Mrs. Shroyer will be required to take oaths, notarize papers, swear and take the testimony of witnesses.

In the absence of the Clerk of Court, she will be acting clerk and perform other duties.

Mrs. Shroyer was born at Point Hope as Mae Tuzroyluke. Her parents were Bob and Helen Tuzroyluke. Her father has been dead for many years and her mother, is now married to Chester Seveck.

The couple is employed presently as tourist greeters at Kotzebue by the Wien Consolidated Airline. They are a well known couple who have traveled extensively throughout the United States. They also have traveled to Japan and Hawaii promoting tourism.

Mae Shroyer has two children Martin, 11, and Sandra, 10. Mae and her children will reside in Nome. They had been living in Kotzebue before moving to Nome.

Mrs. Shroyer is the niece of the Tundra Times editor, Howard Rock.