

BBNC shareholders chosen for management training

Bristol Bay Native Corporation and Choggiung Limited's Training Without Walls recently selected ten candidates who will participate in the Bristol Bay management training program. Training Without Walls is a unique management training program designed to create enriched management skills and expand the career opportunities of Bristol Bay shareholders who have demonstrated leadership potential.

Selection by an independent company was based on the competitive criteria of applications, qualifications, and management experience. Fifty-seven shareholders submitted applications to be considered for participation in the training program. The ten selected candidates are:

Brenda Akelkok, Dillingham, who currently serves as Director of Planning and Programs for the Bristol Bay Native Association. Akelkok has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Journalism from the Eastern Illinois University.

Iris Gray, Sitka, who graduated from the University of Alaska Anchorage with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration. Gray currently works as a Contract Health Manager for the SEARHC Mt. Edgecumbe Hospital.

Ingrid Hansen, Olympia, WA, who is the Administrative Assistant II for the Washington State Department of Health. Hansen obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree from the Evergreen State College.

Mark Murphy, Renton, WA, who is a Financial Consultant with the Merrill Lynch Company. Murphy obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the Seattle University.

Carl Nelson, Jr., Eagan, MN, who is a helicopter pilot and serves as an Officer, Captain in the United States Marine Corps. Nelson obtained his Bachelor of Science degree from the Purdue University.

Hazel Nelson, Anchorage, who is the President and Manager of Becharof Corporation, the village corporation for Egegik. Nelson is currently attending University of Alaska Anchorage to obtain her Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration.

William Nicholson, Dillingham, who is the Tribal Operations Program Manager for Bristol Bay Native Association. Nicholson has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Christian Education and Psychology from the George Fox College.

Paul Roehl, Anchorage, who is the Land Manager for Bristol Bay Native Corporation. Roehl received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration from Sheldon Jackson College.

Agnes Rychnovsky, Iliamna, who is the City Clerk for the city of Newhalen. Rychnovsky has an Associates of Arts degree from the University of Alaska Fairbanks. Kimberly Williams, Fairbanks, who is currently attending the University of Alaska

Fairbanks and anticipates graduating in the Spring of 1995 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology.