

BIA Nondalton School Building Completed

The completion of a Bureau of Indian Affairs school construction project at Nondalton has been announced by Charles A. Richmond, Area Director.

On March 11, 1970, representation of BIA turned over to Division of State-operated Schools three additional classrooms and duplex teacher housing.

The new units were built with bureau funds to improve facilities for the education program at Nondalton.