

OTZ Students Sail to Sheshaulik on Sleds

On Oct. 3, 1973, four kids put a sail on a couple of sleds and went sailing on the ice in front of town. The names of the kids are: Claude Wilson Jr., Henry Wilson, Jeff Barger and Lawka Gallahorn.

They were having so much fun that they did not bother to look back. Then one did look back and didn't see town and didn't know which way to go so they decided to go to Sheshaulik.

When they got there they went to Claude Wilson's cabin and went to sleep.

Searchers on snow machines looked almost all night and found nothing. One sno-go finally went to look at Sheshaulik and looked and they found the kids sleeping in the cabin.
