

Hopson confers with Greenlanders

Conferring on plans for Inuit circumpolar unity and cooperation are, left to right, Peter Frederick Rosing, Director of Greenland Radio's News Service; Jens Lyberth, President of the Inuit Development Corp. of Canada, a Native of Greenland who served as interpreter; Lars Chemnitz, Chairman of the Greenland Land Council; and Eben Hopson, Mayor of the North Slope Borough. The talks in Barrow commemorated the historic dogsled trip of famed Inuit Arctic explorer Knud Rasmussen, who visited Barrow on his way from Greenland to Siberia in 1924.