

SURVEYORS

By PATRICA SMITH

HOOPER BAY—The planes came here and brought boxes for the store, and mails for the office, and also it brought some flims.

The men who came here are called surveyors. They are mapping the village. Some men from this village are helping the surveyors. Joseph Lake, my dad, and some other men are helping them.