

Savings Bond Awards

Business Cache is pleased to announce the winners in our recent banking survey drawing. We appreciate the many responses we received from our readers. Three winners were randomly selected and will receive U. S. Savings Bonds as prizes.

The winner of the $250 savings bond is Ms. Debra Call of Eagle River. Debra is Manager of Human Resources at Cook Inlet Region, Inc. Her husband is Dr. Rusty Gump, a veterinarian at Hillside Pet Clinic. Ms. Call says that she and her husband have been happy with the level of service they received from National Bank of Alaska to finance their current home. They are now working with NBA Commercial Real Estate loan officers on a new mortgage to move to a new lot and home.

The $150 savings bond was awarded to Ms. Sara Arno, an art teacher in Palmer. Ms. Arno says that she "appreciates how NBA supports the community." She reads Business Cache for information pertinent to small business.

A $50 savings bond was awarded to Mrs. Robert C. Eldridge of Nenana. Mrs. Eldridge is Corporate Secretary for Voice for Christ Ministries which operates KIAM Radio, 630 on the am dial, in the Tanana Valley Region ■
