

Eskimo scouts remain eternally encircled by the Alaska Veterans Memorial off the Parks Highway.

(M. Richards Photos)

A painting of the organizational meeting of the Alaska Territorial Guard in the Little Diomed Island schoolhouse in the summer of 1942. The artist is Henry Varnum Poor. The original hangs in the Hall of Fame in the Pentagon Building, Washington, D.C.

Veterans' Day Activities

By Frank Alby
Hydaburg
City Hi-Lites

Hydaburg and the rest of the United States has much to be grateful for in its Veterans. Both peace time and combat veterans, and the National Guard Reserves. Long time ago, even our villages had warrior societies for protection against attacks from other tribes. Hydaburg has many men and women who served in uniform and it's time to recognize them. A Veterans Day open house is at the ANB Hall tonight from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Coffee and dessert will be served. Veterans and their families are asked to bring pictures, regalia, and memorabilia to the hall between 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. for display and recognition. There will be a ceremony at 9:00 p.m. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. Cameras and videos are welcome.