

Tanana's Big Celebration Begins June 9

Word has been received here that the annual Nuchalawoya celebration will begin in Tanana June 9. Festivities are expected to continue through June 12.

Native people from all the villages in Alaska are invited to come to Tanana for the weekend of games, dancing and potlatch. Some of the events scheduled are archery, foot racing of all sorts, boat racing, canoe racing and the popular tug-o-war battles.
