

Homer, Cordova get FAA grants

The Federal Aviation Administration has awarded grants totaling more than $473,000 for the acquisition of crash/fire/rescue vehicles for airports in two Alaska communities.

The City of Homer has been awarded a grant of $220,312 to purchase a vehicle, while the City of Cordova will receive $253,125.