

Doss named sales manager

Michael R. Doss has been named district sales manager for Alaska Airlines in San Diego. The carrier began service to San Diego International with five daily flights on Dec. 1.

Doss joined Alaska Airlines seven years ago in Juneau. He worked as customer service representative and was promoted two years later to sales representative in Anchorage. Responsible for seven market areas in Alaska, Doss also managed the carrier's military account while based in Anchorage.

Doss was active in a variety of civic affairs in Alaska including serving as the Airline Division chairman for United Way of Anchorage in 1986.
