

Cross-Country To End May 20

The director, Division of Lands, announced recently that notice has been given to permittees and lessees on the North Slope that cross-country travel must be discontinued on state lands by midnight, May 20.

This action is necessary to prevent potential damage to the tundra during thaw conditions.

---