

★ ATTENTION ★
FOOD STAMP RECIPIENTS!

Under the law you have the following responsibilities:

1. When you apply for food stamps, answer all questions completely and honestly.
2. Provide proof that you are eligible.
3. Report certain changes in your household's circumstances to the food stamp office promptly.
4. Do not put your money or possessions in someone else's name in order to qualify for food stamps.
5. Do not make changes on any food stamp cards or documents.
6. Do not sell, trade, or give away your food stamps, or any food stamp cards or documents.
7. Use food stamps only to buy eligible items.

Remember: People who break food stamp rules may be disqualified from the program, fined, imprisoned, or all three.

SOMEBODY MEANS BUSINESS.

You want it—fast—and they'd better know it. A Mailgram gives any message importance, and it's simple to use. Just look in your telephone directory or ask your long distance operator for the Mailgram number. Then dictate your message. It will be transmitted immediately, to almost any city in the country, and reach its destination in the next mail delivery.

So when business can't wait, send a Mailgram. Let 'em know somebody means business.
