

Pt. Hope Bags Two Whales Says Source

A reliable source told Tundra Times that Billy Webber and Amos Lane and their whaling crews have caught two bowhead whales at Point Hope. This was probably during the last weekend.

Tundra Times was not able to contact Point Hope over the phone. The phone service is apparently not in working order.

Point Hope whalers started their annual whale hunt around April 15. The season will last until around the last week of May.